

Electric mandolin

Date

1965 -1971 ca.

Primary Maker

St. Louis Music Supply

Description

Electric mandolins enjoyed significant popularity in the 1960s and were found in many of the trade catalogs of the time. The Lindell brand was sold by St. Louis Music Supply, a wholesale distributor, and was made in Japan by an unknown manufacturer. It is intended to be affordable and is of moderate, but functional, quality.

Dimensions

Length: 27 ¼" Body diameter: 10 3/8"