

Keyed Bugle, C

Date

1832-1849 ca.

Primary Maker

James Goodison

Description

One-part, single-loop copper body with brass fittings. Six brass keys with flat key heads; lowest key open with heart-shaped adjustment screw, all others closed. Rectangular post mounts; pivots in tubular extension of key shanks Brass flat springs riveted to key shanks and guided in grooved extension of post mounts Undecorated brass garland Saxon rim with iron wire insert Tab seam extending over the entire tubing No tuning slide

Dimensions

Height (without mouthpiece): 440 mm Bell diameter: 147 mm