

Flute, C (composite)

Date

1821-1832 ca.

Primary Maker

Meacham & Pond

Description

Boxwood body in four sections. Simple system keywork, with one brass key with chamfered, rectangular cover with notched corners, mounted on a turned ring. Ivory ferrules. This composite instrument by two makers was made in Albany, New York, and New York City.

Dimensions

Overall length: 597 mm Embouchure hole: 10.1 mm x 9.1 mm Sounding length: 514 mm