

Flute, C

Date

1848-1858 ca.

Primary Maker

William Hall & Son

Description

Reddish tropical hardwood (rosewood?) in five sections, with tuning slide in head joint. Simple system keywork with four nickel silver keys with flat, shallow cupped covers mounted on wooden blocks and turned ring. Ivory ferrules.

Dimensions

Overall length: 601 mm Embouchure hole: 10.8 mm x 9.3 mm Sounding length: 524.4 mm Note: Tuning slide is frozen in an open position, resulting in a 1 mm gap.

