

Basic Detail Report

Pukl

Date

1800-1850 ca.

Description

Single cylindrical chanter, 6/1 with one vent hole. Drone and chanter with cow-horn bells. Leather and wood bellows. Single reed in chanter. This bagpipe is the kind that is used to play folk music in the Chodsko region (in and around the town of Domažlice), in southwestern Bohemia (now The Czech Republic), often in combination with violin and clarinet.