

Streichzither

Date

1860-1900 ca.

Primary Maker

Christian Ludwig Steffen

Description

rosewood-veneered spruce back and sides black-painted spruce back f-shaped soundholes with bone binding 3 bone and steel table-top rests dark-stained maple binding; triple light and dark purfling inlaid on soundboard and a double purfling on both sides of ribs dark-stained hardwood fingerboard with 29 nickel-silver bar frets 5 mother-of-pearl dots on fingerboard two pairs of nickel-plated brass tuners with bone heads

Dimensions

Overall length: 60 cm Greatest width of body: 31 cm