

Keyed bugle, C

Date

1820 ca.

Description

Brass body in two parts (leadpipe and first bow in one; bell bow and bell in one); joint covered by ferrule with central ring and several engraved lines. Telescopic tuning slide at leadpipe, fixed with wing screw. Six keys with cupped key heads; lowest key open with adjustment screw, all others closed. Box mounts Flat iron springs riveted to key shanks Saxon rim with iron wire insert Bell bow and bell with one continuous tab seam

Dimensions

Height: 413 cm Bell diameter: 150 mm