

Basic Detail Report

Flute, C

Date

1730-1740 ca.

Primary Maker

Charles Bizey

Description

Ivory body in four sections. One silver key with square cover mounted in a turned ring. Spring is attached to the ivory. Bizey masterfully created woodwind instruments of all types, and according to Dr. Tula Giannini, a noted expert on French flute makers, he is "one of the finest French woodwind instrument makers of the 18th century."

Dimensions

Overall length: 599 mm Sounding length: 454 mm Embouchure: 9.0 x 8.6 mm