

Tenor oboe, F

Date

1725 ca.

Primary Maker

Johann Wolfgang Königsberger

Description

A three-keyed tenor oboe in fruitwood by Johann Wolfgang Kenigsperger, who worked in Roding, which is near Regensburg in Bavaria. A number of German sacred works composed by Bach, Schulze, Liebe, Volckmar, and others feature fine parts for the tenor oboe.

Dimensions

Length: 818 mm

