

Basic Detail Report

Orchestrion

Date

1912 ca.

Primary Maker

J. P. Seeburg Company

Description

Maker: J. P. Seeburg Co. (orchestrion); piano made by the Seybold Company in 1912 (identity confirmed by Arthur Reblitz) The snare drum has a sticker inside bearing the date November 7, 1912, and the bass drum bears a similar sticker dated October 17, 1912. Both drums were made by the Harmony Co., Chicago, Illinois, and are original to the orchestrion. Includes a piano, two ranks of organ pipes (flute & violin), bass drum, snare drum, tympani, cymbal, triangle Features Torch Glass design leaded glass art windows on front of case Two scenes appear in a circle on each side of the doors; left side includes a house, lake & trees; right side includes a windmill and houses Coin slot mounted on right front side of right door Operated with nickels Cabinet of quartered oak veneer (refinished)

Dimensions

Height: 6' 7.5" Width: 5' 10.5" Depth: 2' 4.5"