

Walking-stick trumpet, E-flat

Date

1992-1993

Primary Maker

John Webb

Description

Brass; one narrow loop, bell bent 90 degrees to form a handle; no tuning slide. Free adaptation of a walking stick trumpet, invented by Thomas Harper and manufactured by John Augustus Köhler in London, prior to February 1833. An original example of a walking stick trumpet by Köhler survives at the Royal College of Music in London (nr. 296).

Dimensions

Height: 945 mm Tube length: 1825 mm Bell diameter: 68 mm