

Natural trumpet, D

Date

1710 ca.

Primary Maker

Johann Leonhard (II) Ehe

Description

Brass; garland with straight upper edge and punched dots, floral engravings; Nuremberg rim, rolled wire with scrolls, tendrils and acanthus leaves; ferrules with impressed floral decoration (some original) and engraved lines (not original). Attribution to Johann Leonhard Ehe II based on signature and master's mark style. Some ferrules mixed up with NMM 7250 and NMM 7251.

Dimensions

Height: 740 mm Sounding length: 2228 mm Bore diameter (initial, minimum): 11.8 mm, 9.9 mm Bell diameter: 110 mm