

Bicycle horn

Date

1910-1920 ca.

Description

Brass (reed and resonator), rubber (balloon-shaped pump)
Simple free-reed signal instrument in which the single-reed is activated by a rubber air pump. This model is listed as "Eisenbahnhuppe" (train whistle) in Julius Heinrich Zimmermann's Musikinstrumente, a catalog of musical instruments, published in Leipzig in 1908.

Dimensions

Height (including rubber ball): 361 mm Bell diameter: 164 mm